

Book of the Week

Each week we'll be putting a spotlight on a must-read book which can be borrowed from the library. We welcome suggestions from staff and students so please do email library@worth.org.uk telling us why your choice deserves to be in the spotlight!

I am Malala How One Girl Stood Up for Education and Changed the World

by Malala Yousafzai and Christina Lamb

Following on from Monday's assembly, the theme of standing up for what you believe in is expressed brilliantly in this week's choice.

I am Malala is an account of a family uprooted by global terrorism and of the fight for girls' education. When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. On Tuesday, October 9, 2012, when she was fifteen, she was shot while riding the bus home from school; few expected her to survive.

Instead, Malala's miraculous recovery has taken her on an extraordinary journey from a remote valley in northern Pakistan to the halls of the United Nations in New York. At sixteen, she became a global symbol of peaceful protest and the youngest winner ever of the Nobel Peace Prize. Read her story and be inspired!

'Malala is an inspiration to girls and women all over the world.'

J.K. Rowling

This book is suitable for students age 13+.
